

Irrigation Basics & Water Conservation Techniques for the Home Garden – 5/18/2013

Join us for a class by Jim Leap on “Irrigation Basics and Water Conservation Techniques for the Home Garden”

The class will cover:

- Basic terminology related to water use
- How water moves through plants and soil
- Basic water measurement
- How to determine when and how much water to apply to vegetables and fruit trees
- Water application tools and techniques
- Basic concepts of “Dry Farming”

Taught by farmer and educator Jim Leap.

Saturday, May 18th, 10 am – noon at the Aromas Water District

$5 donation requested

Please call Wendy at 726-3406 to register.

Hosted by the Aromas Water District and Transition Aromas